Conference Presentations:

Our presenter will be Special Agent Chris Campbell of the North Carolina State Bureau of Investigations since 2020, is a Special Agent, Polygraph Examiner and Behavior Threat Assessment Specialist who also has his own business as a Human Resources Consultant will be the presenter for this conference. The three days will be packed with information all polygraph examiners can use while interviewing examinees for Pre-Employment, PSCOT or Criminal Testing. He will present material on generational understanding and interviewing, Micro Expressions/deceptive indicator education, Rapport Building, Leadership and more. He has presented at conferences such as American Polygraph Association, American Association of Polygraph Examiners and California Association of Hostage Negotiators. To learn more about Chris Campbell visit his website at Pinnacle Era Consultants. Chris Campbell may have a second instructor accompanying him, to team teach with him during these three days of training. You will be receiving twenty-four (24 hours) of Continuous Education Training (CET) to attend all three days of the conference. APA no longer gives Continuous Education Training credit for General Membership Meetings. Our General Membership meeting will occur during a lunch presented by CAPE on Friday.
