

Amanda has been working in the Special Victims Unit with a focus in sex crimes and crimes against children for 8.5 years and have been a polygraph examiner for 5 years. I graduated from Texas DPS Polygraph School in 2019, and became PCSOT certified in 2020. I currently run criminal exams and pre-employment exams for my department and pre-employment exams in the private sector.

Has been an instructor at the Killeen Police Department since 2014, and currently teach classes at the basic academy, intermediate classes regarding child abuse and sexual assault as well as any other class they request of Amanda. Has also taught classes at the Central Texas Council of Governments, and have done various presentations in the local community throughout the last 14 years
