

Angel Martinez is a Lieutenant (Lt.) who works for the Texas Department of Public Safety. Lt. Martinez began his career with the Texas Highway Patrol Division. During his time with the Texas Highway Patrol, Lt. Martinez held the position of Public Information Officer and Safety Education Trooper. Lt. Martinez completed his time with the Texas Highway Patrol with the rank of Sergeant and promoted to the Criminal Investigations Division, Organized Crime Section as a Special Agent. Lt. Martinez was charged with the state's enforcement efforts to reduce the impact of organized crime and to investigate, disrupt, and dismantle drug trafficking, human trafficking, and criminal gang organizations. Additionally, Lt. Martinez became a member of the Investigative Support Section (ISS) performing specialized functions in the Polygraph Unit. Lt. Martinez is now a supervisor for ISS performing a variety of highly specialized functions to include Asset Forfeiture, Computer Information Technology and Electronic Crime (CITEC), Polygraph, and the Technical Unit that greatly contributes to the Department's mission.