

Michael Mitchell
Precision Polygraph of Texas LLC, Owner

Growing up in Houston and graduating from Texas A&M, Mike served as a Naval Officer in OPERATION DESERT STORM.

He attended Cornell University, obtaining a Masters of Management degree in 1999. After several years building companies in the technology business world, he moved into conservation law enforcement.

Starting at the Texas Parks & Wildlife Department in 2004, he was commissioned as a Texas Game Warden. In 2014 he moved to the agency headquarters. In this capacity he strived to help the 551 sworn Texas Game Wardens into the 21st century, including winning a best of state app award and being promoted to Assistant Commander.

He received his basic polygraph examiner training at the Polygraph Institute in San Antonio. Mike holds the last polygraph license in Texas before it deregulated; he also completed sex offender training. He is a board member of the Texas Association of Polygraph Examiners. He holds licenses in Louisiana, North Dakota, and Tennessee. His Austin-based private practice covers sex offender, pre employment, and public polygraphs.
